BUSINESS OF THE WEEK

Little Falls Crafters Market

Little Falls Crafters Market is located at 83 Queen Street East in St. Marys and it was started by Eden Houser who submitted the following business profile.

"I opened the store in July 2007 because I no longer wanted to do craft shows but thought there could be a niche for hand made articles. I didn't do any marketing studies or business plan, just talked to my husband and told him what I had in mind. So, with help, we cleaned and painted in the evenings and opened in three weeks with 12 contributors. There are now 200 active hobbyists doing what they enjoy doing and, instead of giving all their products away, can sell them, and at least recover some of the cost of supplies.

Our woodworkers are amazing, whether it's wood turning, carving or hammering. Our knitters and crocheters do fantastic creations for babies and adults. Our jewellery people do everything from basic earrings to bead weaving pieces at great prices. We do have some artists, and welcome any that come in, but I do let them know there is an art community in St. Marys which they may be interested in joining. You can also find pottery and ceramics on our shelves along with painted glassware. Our baby and children's clothing is always available at reasonable prices and does not shrink or fall apart after washing. I am trying to keep a selection of larger size nightgowns available since they are in demand all year. And, last but not least, our doll clothes and accessories are doing extremely well. We are dressing all the current brands of dolls, and if someone talks about an older doll they would like to dress I ask them to bring it in so we can do a proper fit. I also encourage the children to bring their dolls so they can try before they buy.

Gift certificates are available if you aren't sure what to get for that special someone."
