BUSINESS OF THE WEEK

The Flower Shop and More

Our Business of the Week this week is The Flower Shop and More. We asked owner Julie Docker-Johnson to tell us about her business:

"Eight years ago when I was considering buying the business from the Raths, the advice my dad gave me clinched the deal. He said that during the second World War not a single flower shop in New York City went out of business, even during a depression. People needed flowers, so then it began for the third owner of this St. Marys landmark. A flower shop has occupied 147 Queen Street East for more than 40 years. It began with

Kathy's Flowers, followed by Rath's Roses and today The Flower Shop and More. The "and More" of the Flower Shop includes giftware, home decor and fabulous hand-crafted artisan soaps, fused glass, lavender eye pillows and amazing cards all created by very talented women who make their beautiful products in St. Marys! Three years ago I purchased the building that houses The Flower Shop and More. In the past year the upstairs studio space has been transformed and is now used for classes, birthday parties, bridal and baby showers and wedding workshops! The idea evolved from customers who wanted to have a "hands-on" experience and create their own beautiful arrangements. The business continues to evolve with the times. Designs and trends change all the time and it makes the business very exciting. We have started working with real estate agents and homeowners to help "stage" homes to aid with the sale. As with our predecessors we buy only the freshest cut flowers and greenery, green plants and flowering plants. Our product is our livelihood, cut flowers should last for weeks when taken care of properly, we guarantee it. Service is everything, customers want something unique and deserve exceptional service, so our goal is to always exceed expectations. The Flower Shop and More has the very unique experience of being part of the "best of times" and the "worst of times" in people's lives. Our goal is to make the best of times even better and to make the worst of times a little brighter. This week The Flower Shop and More celebrates its 8th Anniversary! We are very grateful for your support and loyalty, thank you St. Marys!"
